The first day of the week, the Sabbath, was a day of rest and devotion. The people were commanded to keep it holy, and to abstain from all worldly pleasures. The Sabbath was a time for the people to gather together and worship God. It was a time for the people to hear the word of God, and to be instructed in the ways of righteousness.
 The Sabbath was also a time for the people to rest from their labors, and to refresh their souls. It was a time for the people to be united in prayer, and to seek the blessing of God upon their lives. The Sabbath was a day of joy and gladness, and of peace and harmony. It was a day when the people were reminded of their covenant with God, and of the promises that He had made to them. The Sabbath was a day when the people were able to see the beauty of God's creation, and to praise Him for His goodness and mercy. The Sabbath was
 able to experience the love of God, and to be united with Him in His kingdom. The
 glory of God, and to be filled with His Spirit. The
 power of God, and to be strengthened in His love. The
 wisdom of God, and to be guided by His Spirit. The
 truth of God, and to be saved by His grace. The
 life of God, and to be made partakers of His inheritance. The Sabbath was
 able to see the kingdom of God, and to be brought into it. The Sabbath was a day when the people were able to see the glory of God, and to be filled with His Spirit. The
